SPLATSIN, CANADA, AND BRITISH COLUMBIA SIGN HISTORIC COORDINATION AGREEMENT FOR FIRST NATIONS CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

On Friday, March 24, at a ceremony in Enderby, British Columbia, Kukpi7 (Chief) Doug Thomas of Splitsin; the Honourable Patty Hajdu, Federal Minister of Indigenous Services; and the Honourable Mitzi Dean, BC Minister of Children and Family Development; celebrated the signing of the first coordination agreement in British Columbia, pursuant to the Act respecting First Nations, Inuit, Métis children, youth, and families. This agreement supports the ongoing exercise of Splitsin’s jurisdiction of their Child, Family, and Community Services under Spallumcheen Indian Band Bylaw #3-1980 and Secwepemc law.

Over the next 10 years, the agreement will transfer $136.2 million to Splitsin to support their ongoing delivery of child and family services grounded in their culture and family systems. Splitsin has taken care of their children and families since time immemorial under Secwepemc law and has been exercising jurisdiction and protecting Splitsin children under their bylaw since 1980. Splitsin will continue this work, as they have always done.

This agreement is a historic milestone as it is the first coordination agreement in British Columbia and the fifth agreement in Canada. The coordination agreement addresses the coordination of services, the delivery of emergency services, mechanisms for First Nations children to exercise their rights, and fiscal agreements that are needs-based sustainable and consistent with the principle of substantive equality. The coordination agreement also establishes funding from the federal and provincial governments to ensure that the necessary financial resources are in place.

“Splitsin has been looking after our children since time immemorial and more formally with our Bylaw since 1980. This high level of responsibility for our children falls not just on the shoulders of leadership, but every Splitsin community member. It takes a community to raise a child and at Splitsin we do our best to live by those words. I raise my hands up to our community and each and every person involved in caring for our most vulnerable children and youth in the past, present and into the future.” –Kukpi7 Doug Thomas

FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM JESSICA KENT

Waykt Splatsinaca,

It is with a heavy heart that I am letting you know I am moving on from my role here at Splatsin Health Services. My family and I have decided to move back to Nelson. My last day will be March 31.

I have loved my time working with the Splatsin community. I began here as a practicum student in 2014. Aside from my two mat leaves, I have worked part-time on the Mental Wellness team since then.

It has been an absolute honour to work here. I have felt so welcomed and appreciated by this community. I have met many amazing people and learned a lot! The challenges I have seen many people overcome have been truly aw inspiring! I wish that I could bring this role and this community with me. I feel such gratitude for the opportunity to have worked so closely with so many of you over the years. It is very hard for me to leave as I know I will probably never find another role that I love this much.

If you are a current client, please make sure that you connect with me if you are wanting to be referred to another support before I leave. I am going to remain a contact for Splatsin Health staff if they have questions.

I wish this community all the best. I raise my hands to all of you.

Kukwstsamc,
Jessica Kent
